

Dr. Margarida Gonçalves Neto

Doctor

Casa de Saúde do Telhal Hospital, PORTUGAL

Margarida Maria Sancho da Silva Gonçalves Neto, who was born on the 6th of November, 1960 in Lisbon Portugal, received her undergraduate in medicine in 1985 and her specialization in psychiatry in 1993. Currently, Neto works at Casa de Saúde do Telhal Hospital specialized in psychiatry and also coordinates its alcoholic unit. She is the regional leader of the Portuguese Catholic Doctors, regional and national leader of Portuguese Girl Guides. Additionally, she is experted in the subjects regarding Family and Couple Counseling and Therapy and Sexual Education and Sexology. After she served for government with the title "National Coordinator of Family Affairs" between the years 2003 and 2005, she held position as the co-founder of a new center political party from 2008 to 2012. She also intervenes in TV programs and other media including the authorship of a Portuguese talk show "Coisas de Família" (Things of Family) about family education. Since 1984, she is militant against abortion and euthanasia with public intervention. Dr. Margarida Gonçalves Neto is divorced and has two children aged 23 and 27.
