

Prof. Dr. Paola Todini

Professor

E-Campus University, ITALY

Since 1999 Paola Todini is an Italian lawyer in the field of civil law with particular attention to contract and family law. In the same period, she begins to work as assistant professor in civil law, from 2006 she is a lecturer in the field of minors law, civil law, family law, European civil law in different universities (Università della Calabria, Link Campus - University of Malta, MEF University, eCampus University). In 2010 she becomes a researcher in the field of private law eCampus University (Como) where she still works until now as Professor of civil law and Coordinator of Law course of study in Law Faculty. Since 2011 she is nominated expert of family law by children's Ombudsman of Calabria. She was visiting professor at Yildirim Beyazıt University (Ankara) class of "Minors Tutelage in the European and Italian civil law", and visiting professor at Russian Academy of Justice (Moscow), class of "Current problems and innovation in the field of family law in Italy and EU". As Author of academic Publications on civil law matters, she dedicates a relevant part of her research in the field of family matters and paternal responsibilities. She is speaker in many international and domestic congress and conferences in the field of minors and family protection.
